State Revenues
State Expenditures		94,394	187,903
Net Increase (Decrease)		(94,394)	(187,903)

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill has the following provisions:

- A. It establishes two additional superior courts in Hendricks County on January 1, 2007.
- B. It allows the judges of the existing Hendricks superior courts and the circuit court to jointly appoint one full-time magistrate to serve the courts until January 1, 2007. (The introduced version of this bill was prepared by the Commission on Courts. Hendricks County is ranked fourth by severity of need in the 2003 Weighted Caseload Statistical Report.)

Effective Date: July 1, 2005.

Explanation of State Expenditures: Under this bill, the judges in Hendricks County could appoint a magistrate to serve the current courts from July 1, 2005, until January 1, 2007. On January 1, 2007, two new courts would be established and the authority of the courts to appoint a magistrate would expire.

If no changes occur in salaries, fringes, and other benefits, the following costs are expected for each fiscal year.
